

WAVERLEY Christian College

Crossing Supervisor

Commence in 2018

Waverley Christian College is a Christian co-educational school seeking to offer students a quality Christian educational experience. With campuses in Wantirna South and Narre Warren South, Waverley has an enrolment of over 1950 students across both campuses. The Wantirna South Campus requires a Crossing Supervisor in the mornings and afternoons to supervise our car park crossings and direct car park traffic. The successful applicant will undergo qualification training at a Control Traffic with Stop-Slow Bat course.

We are looking for applicants who are able to supervise car park activities including children and vehicles at pedestrian crossings. You must have a Working with Children Check, knowledge of road laws, possess good hearing and eyesight, and have a commitment to our College values. Ideally, the successful applicant will possess a confident and relational style.

A commitment to the values and ethos of Christian education is essential. A Position Description is available on the College website www.wcc.vic.edu.au.

Applicants are to include a Letter of Application, Resume, a written Pastoral Reference and a completed "Employment Application Form – Administration" found on the College website under Employment www.wcc.vic.edu.au
